VOL. III. NO. 114.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, MAY 13, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS

CALIFORNIA HORSES HERE.

Sam Hildreth, Louis Ezell. W. B. Sink, and W. B. Sink, Jr., Ed Ryan and "Curley" Shields got in from San Francisco yesterday. The horses brought by them all look high and show no effects of their winter racing. Ed Ryan has Howard S, the Bromley new purchase, and will go right on East with him.

Hildreth, Ezell and Sink will race at Joliet. B. J. Johnson's cast off Thompson, worked a fast three-quarters yesterday morning and after it dropped dead.

BEN BROWN WELL SOLD.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 12.—Furst Bros. sold Ben Brown to Fleischmann & Son previous to the Derby, for $800. They retain the interest in his running in the Latonia and Oakley Derbies. C. Pattison, his present trainer, will continue to handle him. Eight thousand people saw the Derby. The track is drying out fast, but was heavy and holding for the race.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Geo. Cochran has been suspended indefinitely. Kansas City elects to hold a meeting this season to begin early in June and run indefinitely.

Col. Jack Price has been chosen as Joe Murphy's judicial associate at the St. Louis Fair Grounds meeting.

Maceo, Byron McClelland's good colt, is working well in Kentucky and is likely to cut a figure in the Western three-year-old brigade.

By an all around settlement Ruinart has become the property of J. Porter Ashe, who will bring the good horse East and race him in sharp corners.

The Sporting World of San Francisco has "passed it up," as it should have done long ago. It was a journalistic eyesore and misrepresented the turf.

Additional Jockey applications granted in 1897 by the Turf Congress license committee are: Henry Dickerson, under contract to J. Richard Hughes; Chas. Kelly to W. F. Schulte.

The Eastern work watchers incline to the idea that Halma will stand training and be a good horse this season. He worked a mile in clever style and pulled up sound at Morris Park a day or two ago.

Jockey Brazil, an English timber rider of ability, is not likely to get a license this season on account of a bad looking race which he and English rode at a meeting held in Aiker, S. C., this spring.

Jockey Slaughter will ride no more in Frisco. He has gone to Texas to visit his parents and will not go to work again until the St. Louis meeting opens. He will have a mount in the Inaugural.

Secrecy, by Foul Shot, now owned by Barney Schreiber, won the First Handicap Hurdle race, 100 sovereigns, about one and three-quarter miles, at the Hawke's Bay, Aust., Jockey Club meeting Wednesday, March 17. She carried 150 pounds.

Californian racing people of good judgment, consider that Clawson, who weighs about 78 pounds, is a marvellous rider. His judgment and handling of Little Bob is said to have been responsible for the Surinam gelding's victory in the four-mile race at Ingleside last Saturday. He will ride in the East this season.

This significant notice is printed in the Cincinnati papers: "Outlawed jockeys desiring to make application for reinstatement must file their applications with E. C. Hopper, Secretary of the American Turf Congress, on or before June 1. The License and Appeal Committees will meet in June to pass on such applications. The date of the meeting will be announced hereafter." There must be some idea at some Turf Congress corner of new legislation to embrace the present outlaw band.
